1	Peter	Himchak	2019-09-30	peter.himchak@cookeaqu.com	Dear Kathleen Howington, I have participated in SEDAR Reviews many times and there were always documents on the SEDAR site to read ahead of the actual peer review dates. I understand the ASMFC's policy is to not post either the single species Atlantic menhaden benchmark stock assessment document or the Ecological Reference Points Benchmark Assessment before, or even during, SEDAR 69 which begins November 4, 2019 but to make those documents available to the public in mid-January 2020. Isn't this highly unusual?		2019-09-30 12:13:53
